

QLD Branch February Lunch

When you hear or read the words “Building Codes” ... Do you find yourself asking what now?

FMA Australia Queensland Branch have arranged an informative briefing on all the changes that are either happening or are about to happen...

So for the time you spend having lunch on any given day, this day you will walk away with an updated knowledge on the building codes, presented by the Plumbing Legislation and Standards Branch - Building Codes Queensland - Department of Infrastructure and Planning - Queensland Government.

Areas to be discussed are:

- Certificate of Classification - placement of COCs in buildings and overview of guidelines.
- Alternative water sources - overview of policy regime for water savings within buildings.
- Fire safety maintenance code - installation, maintenance, record requirements. Overview of maintenance code and guidelines.
- Changes to classification rules for buildings - using consistent approach, relationship with BCA amendments.
- From 1 January 2008, new water saving measures, aimed at preserving our drinking water supplies apply. These include:
 - expanding the allowable uses of treated greywater
 - treated blackwater trials
- Disability access standards - impact on new and existing buildings. Commonwealth soon to finalise new standard.
- Energy efficiency requirements - Section J and Housing, and Regulatory Impact Statement.
- Need for the development of a manual on how to go about maintaining energy efficient buildings.

This is your chance to be kept up-to-date, as they say “knowledge is power” and Knowledge can save you money and time.
