

Media News

56 PROPERTY

The Australia Financial Review

Thursday 28th September 2006

FMA Australia

Andrew McEwan, of the Queensland Department of Local Government, Planning, Sport and Recreation, has become vice-chairman of the Facility Management Association of Australia. He said FMA Australia had substantial growth in membership. "We have an excellent relationship with the Australian government through the Facilities Management Action Agenda and are developing closer relations with our global partners," he said. Robert Harley